14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Do you want to know the mind and heart of God? Jesus thanks the Father in heaven for revealing to his disciples the wisdom and knowledge of God. What does Jesus' prayer tell us about God and about ourselves? First, it tells us that God is both Father and Lord of earth as well as heaven. He is both Creator and Author of all that he has made, the first origin of everything and transcendent authority, and at the same time, goodness and loving care for all his children. All fatherhood and motherhood is derived from him (Ephesians 3:14-15).

Pride - the root of sin

Jesus' prayer also contains a warning that pride can keep us from the love and knowledge of God. What makes us ignorant and blind to the things of God? Certainly intellectual pride, coldness of heart, and stubbornness of will shut out God and his kingdom. Pride is the root of all vice and the strongest influence propelling us to sin. It first vanquishes the heart, making it cold and indifferent towards God. It also closes the mind to God's truth and wisdom for our lives. What is pride? It is the inordinate love of oneself at the expense of others and the exaggerated estimation of one's own knowledge and importance.

Simplicity of heart

Jesus contrasts intellectual pride with child-like simplicity and humility. The simple of heart are like "infants" in the sense that they see purely and simply without any pretence or falsehood. They instinctively recognize their utter dependence and reliance on those who are stronger, wiser, and more capable of giving them what they need to live and grow. Those who are truly simple of heart seek the one thing alone that can sustain us in good times and hard times and in very circumstance of life - the "summum bonum" or "greatest good" who is God himself.

Simplicity of heart is wedded with humility, the queen of virtues, because humility inclines the heart towards truth and grace - the favor and help freely given by one who is all-giving, gracious, and kind towards us. Just as pride is the root of every sin and evil, so humility is the only soil in which the grace and favor of God can take root. It alone takes the right attitude before God and allows him as God to do all - all the good that he wishes to do for us for our own benefit and welfare. God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble (Proverbs 3:34, James 4:6). Only the humble in heart can receive the wisdom which comes from God and the understanding of God's perfect goodness and plan for our lives. Do you trust in God with your whole heart and submit to his wisdom and plan for your life?

UPCOMING EVENTS

Urgent Roof Repair Funds Needed!!!

As many of you already know, the roof of our rectory collapsed a few weeks ago. This week, we found out that our roof insulation also need to be replaced. We need to make urgent repairs that will cost over $40,000
Please donate today!

PARISH VITALITY CONFERENCE, ONE CLICK CLOSER!

Talk of a parish vitality conference in November has been circulating recently with notices published in parish bulletins, the Catholic Times and the Grapevine. Bishop Thomas Dowd has also taken every opportunity to plug the event during his parish visits, diocesan meetings and, most recently, in his Times column. There's been plenty of talk; now how about some details? The conference is for whom, will be held where, when and why?

Look no further, visit the diocesan website at www.parishvitality.com.

Mass Schedule

Please note that Tuesday 7:00 pm, Wednesday 7:00 pm and Thursday 9:00 pm Mass will be in the rectory.
