World Mission Sunday is on October 20th this year. Every parish in every country in the world where the Church is present will be celebrating being part of a universal Church. That is potentially 1.2 billion people praying and giving what they have so that Christ is made better known throughout the world.

World Mission Sunday is our chance to show love and solidarity to our brothers and sisters overseas who share our faith. In offering our prayers, we join with missionaries everywhere in communion and compassion to support them in spreading the Good News.

St. Paul of the Cross (3 January 1694 – 18 October 1775) was an Italian mystic, and founder of the Passionists. God lavished upon him the greatest gifts in the supernatural order, but he treated himself with the greatest rigor, and believed that he was a useless servant and a great sinner. He was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867. His feast day is October 20.

Blessed Adeline

Adeline was the sister of Blessed Vitale. She became the first Abbess of the monastery founded at Mortain. The Rule followed by this religious house was that of St. Benedict together with a few observances drawn from the Cistercian tradition. Because of the color of their habit the religious came to be called the "White Ladies." After a life dedicated to prayer, mortification, and charitable works, Blessed Adeline was called to her reward in 1125. Such was her reputation for sanctity that shortly afterward she began to be honored as one of the Blessed and her remains were solemnly transferred to Savigny.

For those of you who would like to keep in touch, Fr. Stephen has sent his Blog Address—It's called Sketches of Roma—it has little vignettes about different sites in Rome and his experiences.
